Backing Up The 'Talk': Rihanna Has Two Top Gainers

Rihanna continues to set up her sixth studio album, Talk That Talk, due a week from today (Nov. 21), in style, as she boasts the Mainstream Top 40 chart's two greatest gainers with the first two singles from the release.

Lead track "We Found Love," featuring Calvin Harris, rises 7-6 with a gain of 1,378 plays, according to Nielsen BDS. While the song fails to defend the chart's Greatest Gainer billing that it sported last week, it cedes the honor to Rihanna's next single, as "You Da One" blasts in at No. 26 with 2,133 plays on 81 stations, an average of 26 plays per station playing the song. Impressively, "One" registered its hefty first-week sum in less than three days, as the song was serviced to radio Friday (11).

With the debut, Rihanna ups her count to 29 career Mainstream Top 40 charted titles, tying Island Def Jam labelmate Mariah Carey for the highest sum since the survey launched the week of Oct. 3,

The all-out support from radio could help grant Rihanna an as-yet elusive career milestone.

RIHANNA

As it climbs 7-6 on Mainstream Top 40, "We Found Love" becomes Rihanna's seventh No. 1 (4-1, with Greatest Gainer honors) on Rhythmic (see page 4).

For all her singles success—including 11 No. 1s on the Billboard Hot 100—she's yet to score a No. 1 album on the Billboard 200. Each of her first five sets has reached the top 10, but Good Girl Gone Bad represents her highest rank, having bowed at No. 2 the week of June 23, 2007.

Katy Perry likewise makes chart headlines, as "The One That Got Away" rises 13-10 to become the sixth top 10—following an unprecedented five No. 1s—from her album Teenage Dream. Only one set had previously yielded six Mainstream Top 40 top 10s: Janet Jackson's janet. in 1993-94.
